Coach's Comments: (Coach Lashley)

- Coach Adams represented the team this week for Coach Lashley

- Sports banquet will be Sat, Jan 17th at 4pm. We need someone to take tickets for the Freshman & JV games, Venegas will need help with banquet, point of contact 525-3386 if you can assist, Householder & Venegas will have QBC & Mom's Club membership table available
- Discussion on whether Cheer will stay with QBC or separate as it is a competitive sport
- New District Alignment: Niceville, Choctawhatchee, Moseley, FWB and Navarre
- Navarre High School was 2nd in academics in the State of Florida for FHSAA

Old Business:

- Janie will be getting together the Mardi Gras Parade. Please contact her for more information
- Jan 2009 begins the new officer duties. Bring dues in Jan as only paid members can vote at that point
- If you interested in a chairing a committee, please see President Joe Venegas.

New Business:

- Mike has Mardi Gras parade application for Court of Crewe Jesters, it is same as last year
- Discussion on whether soccer parents use QBC booster seats during their games – to recoup usage, they are being invited to assist with stadium and field maintenance during summer and fall
- Seating has been requested to set pricing for $30 or 35, vote will take place in Jan or Feb
- Renew tax-exempt status after the New Year
- 50-50 suggested to stop selling at start of game to allow parents working to watch the game, unless some freshman or JV parents would like to continue until half-time,
- Parking – it is suggested that we start manning parking lot at 4:30 stopping at begin of game
- Consideration is being made to charge football due to budget cuts, we would be similar to other area organizations
- Mike wants to personally thank each and everyone for their support and a job well done, Mike will remain the point of contact for band and soccer, Mike will be available to help QBC
