MARDI GRAS

- Parade is on March 5th; players should arrive at the State Park area (on the left after you cross the Navarre Bridge) by 10 A.M. before the bridge is closed
- Parade will start at the west (opposite) end of Navarre Beach on Arkansas Street and will end at the State Park
- Float will have 6 safety walkers with armbands identifying them
- Jeff Jones will be leading decorating efforts at his home at 1974 Candlewood Drive in Holley by the Sea. Jeff can be reached at 259-1395
- Rising seniors will be permitted to ride on the float as will QB Club officers; this is the same procedure as in the past; others will walk

FUNDRAISERS

- Golf Tournament has been finalized for April 16th at Hidden Creek; need people to chair and organize; potential to raise well over $5,000 in profits in one weekend if we get on this and organize ASAP
- Letter writing campaign for funds has begun and some donations have begun coming in
- Motorcycle Poker Run is in the works; details to follow

IAN LOCKWOOD MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND

- Mike Householder handed out a draft of the application. The intent is for the award to go to a deserving football player but will not be limited to one and can be given to any NHS athlete. The application format is designed with a point system that keeps it impartial and eliminates the potential for favoritism. It also awards significant points for an athlete dealing with a serious illness.

WEBMASTER

- Wayne Jones will be taking over from Vinnie DePersio
